Litigation

Tom is currently the outside General Counsel for one of the fastest growing not-for-profit providers of behavioral health and human services in the U.S. He has extensive experience in complex commercial, trade secret, and employment litigation and counseling. He has been lead counsel on a number of precedent-setting decisions involving the financial services, insurance and gaming industries.

Tom has handled numerous cases in the Pennsylvania Supreme, Commonwealth and Superior Courts. In the Supreme Court, he successfully defeated the first court challenge to the issuance of a slot machine license after the passage of The Pennsylvania Race Horse Development and Gaming Act. He also was lead counsel before the Supreme Court representing one of the largest banks in the country in litigation to stop a takeover of its Board of Directors.

Tom is a frequent lecturer at colleges and universities, bar associations and industry and community groups.

Prior to joining Stevens & Lee, he was a supervising attorney for the Pennsylvania Human Relations Commission's Harrisburg region. In this capacity, he was lead counsel in numerous cutting edge employment discrimination cases.
