Areas of Focus

Practice

Litigation

Jason represents public and private businesses and their owners, officers and directors in complex business disputes before state and federal courts across the country and in domestic and international arbitration forums. He has particular experience handling a wide range of contract disputes, business torts, partnership disputes, corporate governance disputes and statutory causes of action for clients in banking, energy, pharmaceutical, health care, manufacturing and construction industries. Jason also brings a depth of knowledge to managing all phases of electronic discovery, including for highly complex multidistrict litigations and state and federal investigations, and creates significant efficiencies for clients during the discovery process.
